

Call for proposals: FoCM conference 2017

Website: <http://focm-society.org>

The proposal should address the following issues:

- Period: Eligible periods could be between May 2017 and October 2017.
- Facilities: there should be a large lecture theater for the plenary talks with the usual media equipment. In addition smaller seminar/lecture rooms should be available to accommodate the 7 workshops. Please include fotos, sketches illustrating these facilities and quantifying the capacities.
- Accommodation: please indicate the available accommodation facilities and their location relative to the conference site and related transportation aspects.

- Costs and Funding: possible costs could arise in connection with facility use and catering. Please provide an outline and possible additional funding sources.
- Local Organizing Committee: The effectiveness of the local organizing committee is crucial. Please provide corresponding relevant information.

Send your proposal by April 30, 2015 as a single PDF-file to:
